

Springing Forward

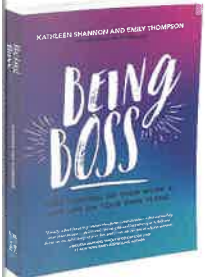

These projects from and about incredible Oklahomans are sure to give your springtime a lift.

Mankiller

Premiering on PBS in March as part of Women's History Month, the documentary Mankiller follows the legendary Cherokee chief's struggles against tragedy, adversity, racism, and sexism all in the name of a brighter future for her tribe. mankillerdoc.com.

Being Boss: Take Control of Your Work + Live Life on Your Own Terms

As cohost of the popular podcast Being Boss, Norman native Kathleen Shannon has made a name for herself encouraging women in their creative entrepreneurial pursuits. Now, she and cohost Emily Thompson bring their know-how to the book Being Boss: Take Control of Your Work + Live Life on Your Own Terms. April 10. beingboss.club/book.

Prairie Power: Student Activism, Counterculture, and Backlash in Oklahoma 1962-1972

Historical perspectives about the counterculture movement of the 1960s and 1970s typically center around California's Bay Area and the East Coast, but this new book by Sarah Eppler Janda reveals the history of Oklahoma's lesser-known but powerful student-led antiwar movement. oupres.com.

The Sweet Southern Heat is one kickin' chicken!

HIDEAWAY PIZZA

Seriously Great Pizza™